

THE BUSINESS OF FASHION

2017 Finance Internship Job Description:

We're a specialty retailer offering the very best of what's next in fashion for men, women and children since 1901.

STRATEGIC NUMBER CRUNCHERS WANTED.

The bucks stop, start, is analyzed, balanced, audited, saved and paid out by our finance team. They manage our budgets, run the reports and make sure everything adds up at the end of the day.

As a Nordstrom Finance Intern, you'll play a dual role — dedicated student and valued team member. As an intern, you'll...

- Get an up-close, behind-the-scenes view of the retail fashion industry that you won't find in a classroom.
- Work on strategic projects with milestones, deliverables and deadlines.
- Apply and understand fundamental concepts, general administrative principles, practices and procedures of finance and accounting.
- Provide support for the financial cycle, including variance analysis and insight reporting.
- Ensure project outcomes align by working side-by-side with the talented people behind designing and producing the product.

You own this if you...

- Are a college student currently in your senior or junior year working toward a Bachelor's degree in Finance, Accounting, or Economics.
- Strong computer skills, especially Excel and PowerPoint.
- Ability to create reports, run queries, create and use pivot tables.
- Build great relationships through stellar communication and follow-through.
- Thrive in a fast-paced environment thanks to your ace organizational skills and ability to quickly learn new processes and procedures.
