

Brand: Henri Bendel
Position: Handbag Design Intern

POSITION DESCRIPTION:

The Henri Bendel Design Intern will be responsible for assisting the Designers handbags. The Design intern will work closely with one design teams that are responsible for creating the Henri Bendel handbag line that is sold at the Henri Bendel Stores. The Design intern will be responsible for researching design inspiration as well as competitive items out at retail. He/she will research images for design concept boards to be presented to the designers as well as upper management. The Design intern will be responsible for competitive retailing in order to understand the competitive environment and look for common trends, key items and patterns in the market place.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Proficient in Adobe CS3 Suite, Illustrator, Photoshop, In-design
- Photoshop retouching skills
- Strong passion for handbag design
- Design Internship experience is a plus
- Working towards a Bachelor's degree in design or related field
- Must be able to draw freehand, have a background in illustration or sketching skills
- Possess excellent communication and organizational skills
- Flexible and adaptable to working with different teams, and on a variety of different projects
- Proficient in Adobe CS3 Suite, Illustrator, Photoshop, In-design
- Photoshop retouching skills
- Willing to learn and understand the creative process.

LOCATION/TRAVEL: NYC based.